

WARRIOR PRINCESS

Warrior Princess – Is a nonprofit organization created to serve, embrace and empower women, especially victims and survivors of domestic violence, so that they continue their journey to re-connect with their inner selves, heal, and find their value transcending their current situation.

Warrior Princess recognizes that no battered women have ever gotten to a place of stability and success without first walking through a path of self-doubt, fear, insecurity, and criticism. What they lean on is critical. Whom they have as a support team makes all the difference.

It is Warrior Princess commitment to create a positive and peaceful environment that allows participants together with our group of mentors and life coaches to work in strengthening and re-directing their believes, so that they can re-gain their dignity and well-being.

Warrior Princess purpose is to be a light in the dark, and to provide hope and empathy to those women, so that they trust that no matter how difficult life can be nor how badly the situation; God always will send angels to comfort them in their pain, to guide, and support them through the path; and to help them see the light at the end...to show them that they can rise and walk in authority.

Our Mission

Serve, Embrace and Empower battered women, so that they can recognize and utilize their valuable role as productive individuals, family and community leaders.

Warrior Princess is a program designed to create breakthroughs and lasting change through workshops, educational conferences, and community support. Warrior Princess is also working towards opening a transitional home for battered women and their children in the area of Waterbury.
