

Girls Inc.'s Sew it up

Under the direction of Suzanne Rae, a Brooklyn-based women's ready-to-wear line designer, Girls Inc. is again offering the opportunity to learn a basic life skill, while combining the contemporary designs of today with the self-expression that design and sewing offers.

Who: All girls, ages 9-16

When: Saturday 9:30—12:00 pm

Where: Girls Inc. 35 Park Place in WTBY

Fee: $600 for the entire year—$75 deposit, $75 per month October—May (no payments due in Dec. or June...5% savings for full year after school participants, 10% savings if paid in full at the time of registration, 25% discount on 2nd child enrolled)

Fee includes full year session, field trips each session, all supplies, Spring trip to New York's Fashion District!

Interested in embroidery, knitting, crocheting or other creative options? Look for new programs launching in January for girls and alumnae!

A full year program focused on sewing skills and fashion design. Upcycling and project based learning drive this entire program. Girls participate in our Girls Inc. Runway on June 9, 2017

Program kicks off 10/7! Contact GIWCT today to sign up!

#203-756-4639 or email info@girlsinswct.org

Program generously funded by the Connecticut Community Foundation

girls inc.

of Greater Waterbury

Inspiring all girls to be strong, smart, and boldSM

Girls Incorporated
of Greater Waterbury
35 Park Place
Waterbury, CT 06702

www.girlsincswct.org
info@girlsincswct.org

 www.facebook.com/GISWCT