

A FREE Online Information Service for All CT Residents from the Connecticut State Library and your local library

iCONN.org – Connecticut’s re-search engine provides all residents with FREE online access to a wealth of essential library and information resources from trustworthy sources. So why use it?

To be a smarter consumer

- Thousands of popular & scholarly magazine titles, including Consumer Reports
- Newspapers - Hartford Courant, New York Times, Wall Street Journal and others
- Statewide library catalog – search over 400 libraries in Connecticut at once
- Spanish-language articles and newspapers

"I just found out about this fantastic service, free to me as an ordinary citizen of Connecticut. Superb! Yet another priceless benefit of the humble public library card...many thanks indeed!" -Lisa Sargent

To help you and your children succeed at school and at college

- Databases for elementary, middle and high school, and college
- Over 4,500 nonfiction e-books for elementary, middle and high school students
- Biographies of over 600,000 individuals
- Over 3,300 downloadable audiobooks and e-books

To research your family history with HeritageQuest and historic newspaper collections

To save money and space

- Replace magazine subscriptions with an online database of over 127 million full-text articles that can be searched instantly

To have an up-to-date resource for lifelong learning

iCONN protects your privacy - iCONN doesn't track what you search or profile you in any way

"What a discovery iCONN is. While researchers and writers can well appreciate its benefits, and students can find a wide variety of sources for school work, the rest of us can enjoy the fun of simply meandering through all it has to offer. Let's spread the word, fellow iCONN fans. This is a site too good to keep to ourselves." -Joanne Nesti

As easy to use as any commercial search engine, iCONN.org also provides powerful search tools that allow you to refine your search to get right to the results that matter most to you.

Access iCONN.org for FREE from any location using a public library card, and use this link to share this letter with your association's members and friends:
<http://bit.ly/1yuTe4T>.

*A service of the Connecticut State Library and your local library.
Authorized and funded by the State of Connecticut with support from the Institute of Museum and Library Services.*